
Clancy Molloy

9855 S Saint Louis Avenue, Evergreen Park, Illinois 60805 US • (708) 779-8823 • molloyclancy@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Clancy Molloy is a student at Fairfield University studying Communications under John Charles Meditz School of Arts and Science pursuing a Bachelor of Arts with a focus on public relations while minoring in Marketing.

His passion for performing arts has lead into a strong sense of confidence, adaptability, and creativity. Recognized for being a community builder, adapting to different environments, and having a strong work ethic. Searching to bring his unique perspectives and experiences to a professional work setting.

SKILLS

- Verbal and nonverbal communication
- Active listening
- Public speaking and presentation
- Written communication
- Storytelling and message delivery
- Adaptability in communication styles
- Performance and stage presence
- Audience awareness and engagement
- Improvisation and quick thinking
- Voice projection and articulation
- Confidence under pressure
- Media or public relations awareness
- Conflict resolution
- Interpersonal relationship building
- Creative expression and idea development
- Event planning and activity coordination
- Positive attitude and mentorship
- Behavior Management
- Crisis Management

WORK HISTORY

Camp Counselor - June, 2022 to August, 2025

Evergreen Park Daycamp - Evergreen Park, IL

- Enhanced the camp's overall curriculum.
- Seasonal employment
- Loyalty to organization.
- Created and oversaw the camp's performing arts program.
- Adhered to safety protocols.
- Improved camper self-esteem.
- Increased camper engagement.
- Fostered an inclusive camp environment.

EDUCATION

Communications Major, Marketing Minor - Bachelor of Arts - 2028

Fairfield University - Fairfield, CT

Marist High School - Chicago, IL

Most Holy Redeemer School - Evergreen Park, IL